Welcome to season 12

MODUPE OMONZE
Founder, Runway Dubai Fashion Show

Welcome to the annual Runway Dubai 2024 fashion show tagged red carpet ready. The fashion event this year, which takes place on the 15th of November, at the centrally situated Metropolitan hotel of Dubai, which promises to be an extraordinary celebration of creativity, empowerment, and responsible initiatives.

Founder and show director, Modupe Omonze says that; "Runway Dubai is more than just a fashion show. It is a platform that inspires women to take over the world with their creative energies, while spreading positivity. Their mission is to celebrate the strength and brilliance of women worldwide, delighting in encouraging women to express themselves through fashion and creativity".

Reflecting on the show's humble beginnings, the team celebrates 12 years of consistent innovation and inspiration across the industry, focusing on mentorship programs and skill development initiatives to foster personal and professional growth.
Runway Dubai has received numerous accolades for their innovative approach, and outstanding contributions in the fashion industry.

Designers:

Confirmed designers hail from Hawaii, U.S.A, Iraq, Portugal, France, India, Mauritius and the U.A.E.
The program this year includes a butterfly inspired fashion competition titled "saving butterflies."
An initiative endorsed by the Monarch butterfly community in the U.S.A, and The Xerces Society for Invertebrate Conservation.
In addition to Runway Dubai's on-going fashion competition, there is the first of its kind bridal wear challenge, a sustainable bridal wear inspired by the red carpet, of the 2024 Cannes film festival that was held earlier in May. The designers are working hard to inspire guests with a red carpet worthy sustainable wedding attire.
Another creative innovation is the mannequin museum hosted by the picturesque venue at the Metropolitan hotel Dubai. a spectacular display of the most luxurious designs by Middle-Eastern designers showcasing the evolution of style and culture through a tasteful mannequin exhibit.
Runway Dubai cultivates not only fashion innovation, but cultural exchange and inclusivity is their core mission, empowering diverse voices and creating opportunities for global collaboration within the fashion industry.

THE BUTTERFLY COMPETITION

A Journey into Elegance
SUPPORTED BY THE MONARCH
JOINT VENTURE U.S.A

The "Saving Butterflies" theme for the Butterfly Fashion Competition challenges designers to create stunning, eco-conscious collections inspired by the delicate beauty and vital importance of butterflies. This theme invites designers to blend creativity with sustainability, using materials and techniques that honor nature's elegance while raising awareness about the urgent need to protect butterfly populations. Contestants were encouraged to showcase designs that reflect the fragility of these creatures, incorporating symbolism, vibrant colors, and innovative, eco-friendly fabrics to celebrate both fashion and environmental responsibility. Through this competition, we aim to inspire a movement that merges fashion with conservation.

Ever thought of why butterflies give life its color when it need not to care, how could you be so selfless with nothing to receive? Runway Dubai partnered with the butterfly conservation community to highlight a unique exposure for creative designers around the world. The designers on this campaign were asked to create beautiful pieces of garment inspired by butterflies.
Additionally, designers were exposed to opportunities such as being showcased at the New York City time square during the fahsion week, including press interviews and magazine features.
"Fashion has the magic to inspire, and at the same time, the power to save."
Butterflies have the ability to conserve energy, and ignite creativity.

THE BRIDAL COMPETITION

Runway Dubai goes bridal

Runway Dubai launched its inaugural Bridal Wear Challenge, inviting designers to create sustainable bridal collections inspired by the glamour of the 2024 Cannes Film Festival, held earlier in the year. This unique theme encouraged participants to blend creativity with eco-consciousness, utilizing materials and techniques that honor nature's beauty while raising awareness about the urgent need to save and not waste.

Established designers, emerging designers, and students were given the opportunity to design a complete bridal ensemble drawing inspiration from CANNES film festival red carpet elegance for inspiration.
The goal was to achieve both fashion and environmental responsibility, inspiring a movement that merges bridal elegance with conservation efforts. This competition not only highlights the artistry of bridal wear but also emphasizes the importance of sustainability in the fashion industry.
This competition is the first of its kind in the industry.

ENDILLA TEAUPA

Charlotte's Rootz is more than just a clothing collection, it's a piece of heritage woven into fabric and tradition. Created by Endilla Teaupa, this line is inspired by the vibrant culture of Tonga and the timeless beauty of traditional garments like Kiekies and Tavolas. Each design blends the past with the present, merging cultural authenticity with modern sophistication through elements like pleated satin bringing luxury with purpose. While Charlotte Rootz is the name of this collection, it's proudly showcased under atea Polynesian arts, a craft shop founded by prestigious designer Endilla Teaupa. ATEA meaning "To bring Light" embodies the goal of illuminating the incredible arts of Polynesia. The clothing line not only reflects her vision but is styled and accessorised with products from ATEA, creating a beautiful synergy between their crafts. Charlotte Rootz isn't just designing clothes, but she is telling stories blending tradition with modern elegance and creating fashion for those who want to wear something deeply meaningful.

Fatoumata Kanoute

Founded in 2015 by a talented 33-VEear-old Parisian designer Kaakollection, along with it’s sister brands Haute Gamma and Luxe et Peaux have quickly made their mark in the fashion industry collectively.
Since beginning her journey in fashion design in 2012, Fatoumata has honed her skills into creating exquisite garments, meticulously crafting each piece from initial sketch to final design. Kaakollection is renowned for its exceptional attention to detail, reflecting on the designer's commitment to quality and craftsmanship. Following her graduation from college, she gained invaluable experience through various roles, including image consultant, personal shopper, saleswoman, and visual merchandiser. These positions allowed her to understand the multifaceted nature of the fashion industry.
Despite her success in these roles, her true passion lay in creating and showcasing her own designs. In response to a growing demand from male customers in 2016, she expanded her offerings to include a sophisticated range of made-to-measure men's jackets. These jackets are crafted from luxurious materials, including premium crocodile skin from the prestigious Hèrmes luxury brand, as well as python and ostrich leather.
With her bold and original creations, Kaakollection embodies the spirit of the independent femme fatale, appealing to a discerning clientele that appreciates elegance and individuality. As she continues to elevate her brand, this visionary designer is undoubtedly one to watch in the world of fashion.

MODUPE OMONZE

Runway Dubai 2024 focused on the intentionality of showing up, and repeatedly making statements with no apologies. Being intentional as fashion workers is very important in the era of artificial intelligence and machine learning. In fashion, your creativity must surpass The meaning of dress codes, in leadership roles, and the initiatives that need more awareness. Earlier in the year, we had announced the dress code and theme for Runway Dubai 2024 “COME OVERDRESSED” the overdressed rule aimed to elevate the overall experience of the event. Guests were invited to experience the joy of dressing up, and the beauty of standing out in fashion.

Finally, Modupe thanked participating designers and encouraged guests to support their hard work and dedication despite the challenges that the participating designers went through, they did not give up on their dreams. She also likened the resilient nature of the designers to the themed butterfly emphasizing on how both undergo challenges, but emerge stronger despite the obstacles. She also called on stage breast cancer warriors like herself, encouraging guests embrace hope while working towards their dreams. The power of positivity and community support is transformative. This important message is the reason we are inspired by the butterfly this year.
